This beautifully refurbished flat is set within a quiet residential cul-de-sac in Wolfe Gardens, offering generous living space and a highly convenient Stratford location.

The property has been completely renovated throughout, featuring a brand-new fitted kitchen, modern bathroom, new flooring, and fresh décor throughout. The accommodation comprises a spacious entrance hallway, a large living/dining room, a contemporary kitchen, three well-proportioned bedrooms, and a stylish family bathroom.

The flat offers excellent space and comfort, making it ideal for professionals, couples, or families looking for a modern home in an accessible East London location.

Stratford is one of East London’s most dynamic and well-connected neighbourhoods, combining excellent transport links with an ever-growing choice of shopping, dining, and leisure options. Stratford International Station is just a short walk away, providing high-speed rail links to central London and Kent, while nearby Stratford Station offers Central Line, Jubilee Line, DLR, Overground, and National Rail services – ensuring effortless access across London and beyond.

The property is within walking distance of Westfield Stratford City, one of Europe’s largest shopping centres, offering a huge range of shops, restaurants, bars, and entertainment venues. The Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park and London Aquatics Centre are also nearby, providing extensive green spaces, sports facilities, and scenic walking routes.

Within the immediate area, you’ll find a variety of local shops, cafés, restaurants, a library, and healthcare facilities – all adding to the convenience and community feel of the location. Stratford continues to benefit from significant regeneration, making it a vibrant hub for professionals and families alike, with an appealing blend of urban convenience and open green spaces.
