Old Hall Farmhouse comprises an important Grade II* Listed former country house providing family sized four bedroomed accommodation with delightful gardens and a paddock, in all extending to 1.548 acre or thereabouts.

Described as a Hunting Lodge, now a Farmhouse circa 1525, the property is re-roofed and possibly reduced by a storey during the 19th Century. The elevations are red brick, partly rendered and the 19th Century rear wings have slab tiled roof. The building features moulded terracotta dressing, a single ridge gable, side wall and chimney stacks. The main east front has what is described as a Tudor arched doorway with moulded terracotta architrave inposts and hood mould flanked by 20th Century casements.

The house stands prominently on rising ground within the frontage, vehicular access from Eakring Road and planning permission granted for a 2 bay car port and covered store within the grounds, set back close to the west garden boundary.

The accommodation in summary provides on the ground floor; reception hall, cloakroom, drawing room, dining room, farmhouse kitchen and utility room. There are steps down to a basement cellar.

The first floor provides 4 bedrooms, family bathroom and shower room. Central heating is oil fired with an external boiler.

Kneesall is an attractive village set in rolling Nottinghamshire countryside midway Newark 10 miles, Mansfield 10 miles. The village has an excellent range of amenities including Kneesall C of E Primary School, private Nursery (Country Kids), a very attractive popular Cafe (The Haybarn), and an excellent Indian Restaurant. The Church of St Bartholomew is a focal point of the village with community space. Conveniently located geographically for access to the A1 and M1 trunk roads, providing excellent communications, also the main East Coast Railway service from Newark Northgate to London King's Cross with journey times of just over 75 minutes.
