THE PROPERTY

The property is entered via a front door that opens into a welcoming Entrance Hall, with stairs rising to the first floor. To the right, a door leads into a cosy Living Room featuring quarry tiled floors, exposed ceiling timbers, a front-facing window, and a centrally positioned multi-fuel burner set within a recessed inglenook. Although full of character, the space now offers clear scope for refurbishment. A further door connects to a spacious Kitchen/Breakfast Room, where the quarry tiled flooring continues and a range of dated base units with work surfaces over offer an excellent opportunity for modernisation, along with ample space for a breakfast table.

The Kitchen/Breakfast Room segues, via a planned walkway, through to a Dining area, this allowing for a wonderfully open-plan feeling. Double-opening doors from the Dining Area lead directly onto a patio, presenting excellent potential for entertaining, while the space itself would benefit from some updating. From the Dining Area, another walkway leads into a well-proportioned Sitting Room, featuring dual-aspect windows and offering versatile options for use as an additional Reception Room, Family Room, or Home Office, with scope for refurbishment to suit modern living. The ground floor accommodation is completed by a Rear Porch/Boot room which enters which offers secondary access and enters into the Kitchen.

Stairs rise from the Entrance Hall to a spacious first-floor landing, providing access to four generously proportioned Bedrooms and a fifth single Bedroom/Study, all of which enjoy elevated views over the surrounding area. The accommodation is served by both a Bathroom and a Shower Room, which, along with the bedrooms themselves, offer significant scope for refurbishment and modernisation, making the property an ideal project for a larger family seeking to update a characterful home.

OUTSIDE

Redcastle House is nestled with land and gardens which extend, in all, to around 2.9 acres and is approached off a quiet country lane onto a concrete parking area positioned to the north of the dwelling, this providing ample space for multiple vehicles.

The home is surrounded on three sides by generous gardens which enjoy a desirable southerly aspect and presently feature expanses of lawn interspersed with, and bordered by, a range of established trees and floral/herbaceous beds, alongside an attractive paved patio area situated alongside the Dining Room. The gardens offering excellent potential for further landscaping.

The north-eastern aspect of the grounds comprises a substantial pasture paddock, predominately in grassed and retained within mature hedge boundaries, with a number of maturing trees. The paddock offers excellent potential for a variety of usages, with scope for the grazing of a range of livestock, including horses and ponies, and the implementation of agricultural or equestrian development (LA consent permitting).

OUTBUILDINGS

Redcastle House is complemented by a number of versatile outbuildings, currently arranged to serve the vendor's cattery business but with scope for a plethora on onward usages:

Workshop (Approx. 8.87m x 4.50m)

Cattery Building One (Approx. 16.60m x 4.76m): A recently constructed and fully insulated building benefitting from power, lighting and water. Presently arranged with a Reception Area which opens into a central hallway, from where 14 separated kennels can be accessed.

Cattery Building Two (approx. 6.89m x 4.01m): With a Porch opening into a Reception Area, from where a door leads into a central corridor allowing access to five kennels and a store room.
