DESCRIPTION

Offered to the market with NO ONWARD CHAIN is this sizeable three bedroom detached home that can be found just to the outskirts of this popular village. The property, despite requiring complete modernisation, occupies a good size plot with gardens to both the front and rear aspect and further benefits from majority uPVC glazing and parking for up to three medium size vehicles.

The home is warmed via a gas central heating system with accommodation in brief comprising dining room/snug, large L-shaped living room, breakfast room, kitchen and WC to the ground floor with the three bedrooms and family bathroom to the first floor.

This property must be viewed to fully appreciate its potential both inside and out so an early inspection is highly recommended.

LOCATION

Crowlas is a sought-after village on the eastern side of Penzance which has a local village shop, takeaway, popular public house and a highly regarded infant/junior school at Ludgvan Lower Quarter. Transport links are easy via the A30 trunk road and mainline railway stations at both Penzance and St Erth. Nearby are supermarkets, including Sainsburys and Morrisons at Eastern Green and some of the areas best south coast beaches at Long Rock and Marazion, home of the iconic St Michaels Mount. Penzance town is just under three miles away and offers a more comprehensive range of shops and schooling for all ages.
