Step inside this charming two-bedroom semi-detached gem, perfectly placed within easy reach of Becontree Station and major road links—ideal for anyone who wants convenience on their doorstep. The home opens with a welcoming hallway leading to a bright kitchen, spacious lounge and a modern family bathroom, all neatly laid out on the ground floor. A feature window on the stairway adds a lovely touch of natural light as you head upstairs.

On the first floor you'll find two generous double bedrooms and a separate W/C, making this a great fit for couples, young families or savvy investors. Outside, there's a sizeable driveway with parking for multiple cars and an electric vehicle charging point—because the future is now.

What really sets this property apart? Planning permission already granted for a seriously impressive transformation. Think single-storey front, side and rear extensions, a front porch, a loft conversion with a rear dormer plus front roof lights, and even a single-storey outbuilding—perfect for a home office, gym or studio. Whether you're dreaming big or planning smart, the potential here is huge.

Located just 0.8 miles from Becontree Station and close to the A13, this home blends comfort, convenience and a ton of future potential. A standout opportunity for anyone looking to create something truly special.

Dagenham is one of East London's fastest-evolving neighbourhoods, offering a winning combination of affordability, strong transport links and a growing sense of community. Once known primarily for its industrial heritage, the area has transformed into a popular destination for families, young professionals and investors seeking great value with plenty of future growth potential.
