The accommodation comprises

Located in the picturesque river fronted village of Bradwell On Sea, which offers a public house/restaurant, community run village shop, primary school and the marina that also has a restaurant/bar.

The area is semi rural with outstanding countryside and coastal walks, along with the historical Chapel Of St Peter On -the -wall dating back to 660-662 one of the oldest remaining intact churches in England. For your shopping needs the village of Southminster is only 6.7 miles away and the larger town of Burnham -On -Crouch 10 miles, both of which offer rail links to London Liverpool Street Station.

This Penny Homes built executive style detached five bedroom family home, offers a wealth of extremely well presented accommodation. The ground floor has a large entrance hall, cloakroom/w/c, spacious kitchen/breakfast room, separate utility room, lounge, dining room and sitting room/study.

The first floor has a lovely size gallery landing, a principal bedroom and guest room with en-suites and three further excellent size double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Externally if you enjoy your outside space, gardening and entertaining, then this is certainly the garden for you PLEASE SEE PHOTOGRAPHS AND THE VIDEO TOUR.

The large frontage/driveway offers parking for a multitude of vehicles, to a double detached garage with loft space.
