THE KNAP

We absolutely love this property for its stunning panoramic sea views and the incredible sense of space it offers. The versatile layout, with three reception rooms and five bedrooms, makes it a fantastic home for family life, entertaining and adapting to suit your needs. It's a truly special property that combines generous living space with a beautiful coastal setting

We have absolutely loved living in this home for the past 25 years and have made so many wonderful memories here over the years. It has been a very special home for us, and we will be sad to leave. However, we feel the time is now right to downsize and move on to the next chapter, giving another family the opportunity to enjoy this lovely home and everything it has to offer.
