Located on Atkinson Street, Peterborough, the property is currently tenanted, providing instant rental return from day one. The apartment forms part of a well-positioned development within easy reach of Peterborough city centre, local amenities, transport links and employment hubs, making it consistently attractive to tenants. The accommodation comprises a welcoming entrance hall, a spacious open-plan living area, fitted kitchen, one well-proportioned bedroom and a bathroom. The layout is practical and well suited to the rental market. A key benefit of the property is the very long lease, offering long-term security and peace of mind for investors. The combination of location, tenant demand and lease length make this a strong addition to any buy-to-let portfolio.
