There are further largely lawned gardens to the side which may provide potential for extension (subject to necessary permissions). There are further lawned gardens to the rear, again largely lawned.

38 All Hallows Road, Walkington, HU17 8SJ

A three double bedroom semi detached property in this sought after village. The property is likely to require updating by the new owner but offers a great opportunity to get into Walkington and has the potential to extend into the side garden (subject to necessary permissions). No forward chain and early viewing is essential.

This great family home is located in one of the most sought after villages around Beverley. With a very good level of local amenities including a highly regarded primary school, the village also provides good access to Beverley, Hull and the West Hull villages. Potential buyers are likely to be impressed by the 3 double bedrooms the property offers. These properties are often reconfigured and extended in various ways and the side garden this property offers adds an extra dimension to that (subject to necessary permissions). With gas fired central heating and extensive uPVC double glazing the accommodation briefly comprises: Entrance Hall, spacious Living Room, Kitchen, Bathroom and to the first floor there is a Landing, 3 Double Bedrooms (all with fitted wardrobes) and a Shower Room. There are gardens to the front of the property, a driveway leads to an integral garage and there are further largely lawned gardens to the side and rear.
