Stubbington, PO14 2QX

PROPERTY SUMMARY

Situated in a highly requested location within walking distance to Stubbington Village and its wide range of amenities, this semi-detached two bedroom bungalow is well presented and benefits from a full length conservatory to the rear. As you enter the property, the hallway leads to a generous lounge to the front, featuring a fire place and bay window, two well-proportioned bedrooms, with the master bedroom benefitting from fitted wardrobe storage, a neutral shower room and a refitted kitchen opening onto the full length conservatory. The conservatory roof has been insulated and cladded on the inside, ensuring a cool room even in the summer and to hold warmth in the winter; a useable room all year round. Outside, there is parking for two cars to the front, a single garage with hardstand in front and a private rear garden. Additional benefits include a newly insulated roof, gas central heating throughout and being within close proximity to the South coastline.
