Tithe House is a remarkable Grade II listed semi-detached barn conversion located in the charming village of Stanton Long, Much Wenlock an area of outstanding natural beauty.

The Hallway is a unique feature that will impress any visitor. Natural light pours in from all angles and shines through the lattice brickwork from both sides of the property. The bifurcated staircase adds another dimension to the space, creating a real 'wow' factor. The large sitting room and separate dining room provide ample space for relaxation and entertaining. The heart of the home is the expansive farmhouse breakfast kitchen, equipped with an electric Everhot 100i range cooker (price negotiable) and abundant worktop space, perfect for culinary enthusiasts. There is also room for a large dining table, making it an excellent spot for family gatherings. The utility room has been recently refurbished which houses the oil-fired boiler, washing machine, and tumble dryer and has space for another fridge freezer, along with a convenient separate downstairs W.C., adds to the practicality of the home.

For the upper level the staircase splits to the East and West wings. The West wing houses the master bedroom, a super king room with vaulted ceilings and an ensuite bathroom featuring a separate shower. A useful storage cupboard is located on the landing to Bedroom 1. The East wing has an impressive gallery landing which overlooks the grand hallway and boasts the further two large double bedrooms with vaulted ceilings and a recently refitted family shower room.

Outside, Tithe House offers parking for up to six vehicles, including two spaces in the double garage. The large flat lawn areas are perfect for outdoor activities, while the lower garden has raised beds and a compost area together with stunning views beyond which enhance the property's appeal. This unique barn conversion combines historical charm with modern living, making it a truly special place to call home
