DESCRIPTION

Luscombe Maye are delighted to bring to market this charming three-bedroom cottage which perfectly blends character and comfort, tucked away in a beautifully peaceful setting. Boasting two parking spaces and two delightful outside areas ideal for entertaining, this is a home designed to be enjoyed both inside and out.

Upon entering, you are welcomed into a quaint porch, a practical yet characterful space that sets the tone for the rest of the property. A conveniently located guest WC sits just off this entrance. From here, you step into the heart of the home – a beautifully spacious living and dining area with stunning natural oak floors and underfloor heating throughout. Flooded with natural light and rich in original features, this inviting space enjoys lovely views out to your outdoor space, creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living. Whether relaxing with family or hosting guests, this room offers warmth, charm, and versatility for all lifestyles.

The modern kitchen with a beautiful cottage aesthetic sits just off the main living area, thoughtfully positioned to create a natural and sociable flow throughout the ground floor.

Upstairs, are three well-proportioned bright and airy double bedrooms, and a stunning family bathroom. The upper floor is a truly special space, with striking original beams running throughout – adding depth, texture, and a sense of history that feels almost like living artwork. The family bathroom is beautifully appointed, offering a calm and stylish retreat and elegant design touches, perfectly complementing the character of the home.

This unique cottage effortlessly combines period charm with modern comfort, making it an ideal home for families, couples, or individuals seeking something truly special.
