Location...

Lewes, the historic county town of East Sussex, sits within the South Downs National Park and offers direct rail links to London (just over an hour) and Brighton (under 20 minutes). The property is a surprisingly short walk to the historic High Street taking just 8 minutes alongside the river Ouse (source Google Maps). The town blends character and convenience, with Waitrose, Tesco, and a range of independent shops along its charming medieval and Georgian high street. Amenities include the award-winning Depot Cinema, a vibrant café and dining scene, traditional pubs, and a popular farmers market held twice a month. Just four miles away is the world-famous Glyndebourne Opera House. Lewes also offers excellent sports facilities—pool, tennis, athletics, and team sports for all ages.
