This beautifully appointed larger than average two double bedroom first floor maisonette is situated on the periphery of Ewell Village centre and offers a large South / West facing garden.

Properties of this type are generously sized and are generally bigger than more modern alternatives and would appeal to those who are looking to bridge the gap between an apartment and traditional house.

Ewell Village offers a variety of shops, restaurants, cafés and pubs. The Bourne Hall hosts a public library, subterranean theatre, gymnasium, café, and local museum. It regularly holds gatherings such as fayres. In the heart of the village lies the Hogsmill river leading up to the nature reserve. There are a range of popular local schools and of course both Ewell East and West stations with their connections to London.

So whether you are looking to buy your first home, wanting to downsize or looking for a rental investment property, this home ticks all the boxes.

Description

The property has a modern fully fitted kitchen/breakfast room and separately a spacious lounge/dining room with views of the garden and Ewell Village behind. Both bedrooms are generous double rooms and the modern bathroom has a bath with shower above. Outside you have access to your own fully enclosed private rear garden which measures approximately 82ft in length and 15ft in width. The historic Nonsuch Park is just across the road, with its woodland walks just moments away making it perfect for a pleasant amble or perhaps a bit of daily exercise with the dog. With lots of green space on your doorstep its good to know that practicality is never far away, with Stoneleigh railway station and its regular service to Waterloo taking just 32 minutes, the local parade of shops catering for all of your day to day needs and a great choice of local schools covering all future bases for buyers.

Nearby Epsom is a popular commuter town, located to the south west of London and offers a good mix of state and independent schools for all age groups. Also close by is the open spaces of Epsom Downs, the home of The Derby and Nork Park. The M25 (Junction 9) is a short drive away giving access to both Heathrow and Gatwick international airports.
