GUIDE PRICE £239,950

This detached house is thought to date from the 1920s and offers spacious accommodation of almost 1,500sq.ft and enjoys a central location within Bridlington and is a very short stroll of the beach and town centre amenities.

The property enjoys an appealing layout of accommodation, which briefly comprises entrance hall, sitting room with log burning stove, dining room, kitchen diner, utility room and guest cloakroom. Upstairs there are three double bedrooms, a box room, bathroom and separate toilet. The house benefits from gas central heating and whilst a number of improvements have been made during the current ownership, there is scope for some further updating.

Externally the property benefits from a garden area to the front and a concrete yard to the rear. Timber double gates allow for off-street parking, beyond which there is a single garage.

The seaside town of Bridlington offers a huge amount of appeal for residents and tourists alike, most notably two award-winning beaches and an array of shopping and leisure facilities, in addition to an historic Old Town area. Horsforth Avenue is centrally located within the town, and Number 11 is within a two-minute walk of Bridlington Spa and South Bay Beach.
