A rare opportunity to purchase a delightful 'chocolate box' picture perfect detached country residence that sits in an idyllic location on the edge of the highly desirable village of Constantine, famous for its vibrant village and community and beautiful countryside, woods and accessibility to the Helford River.

The property has undergone much improvement by the current vendors and offers spacious and well proportioned flexible accommodation and can accommodate up to four bedrooms. The recent works include modernisation throughout as well as future proofing the property with features such as solar panels, newly insulated walls and attic space, and a new modern heating system to bring the property into the 21st century. The owner has also enhanced the property by adding an additional bathroom, further adding character and charm with two new HETAS approved wood burners with new flues and chimneys and fireside features that are in keeping with the property's age and character.

The property sits in a tucked away location and is accessed by a path leading away from the roadside parking bay to a gate opening onto an enclosed front garden and a main entrance with imposing granite pillars either side.

Internally the accommodation in brief comprises of an entrance vestibule with an area for boots and coats, recently fitted cloakroom/bathroom with an unusual seated bath, main living room/reception room which is 23' long, a delightful room with character and charm throughout, a feature fireplace housing a free standing wood burner, sash windows and exposed wood beam ceiling, doors going off to the kitchen/breakfast room the snug/bedroom four and the stairwell. The kitchen is a traditional farmhouse style kitchen with wood wrap around work surfaces and a range with a pleasant outlook over the rear garden, to the side is a utility/larder area; reception two/snug/ground floor bedroom four is a dual aspect room with another traditional fireplace housing a free standing wood burner. A third doorway leads off to an inner porch with coat storage area and an under-stair cupboard housing the fusebox and super fast fibre; it also leads to a turned closed tread staircase onto a half landing and the first floor. On the first floor there is a recently fitted shower room which has been done to an exceptional standard, comprising of a three piece suite, three further bedrooms however one of which has had a wall removed, which can be reinstated, to make it a well-lit open plan studio area.

Outside there is an extensive garden with patio areas, lawns, a stream and a tranquil spot overlooking a waterfall and also a raised deck for alfresco dining.

The popular village of Constantine has a vast range of amenities at hand including two convenience stores with off licences, the Tolmen Centre and Museum which both host frequent and popular cultural events and exhibitions; Constantine social club with its recreation and children's playground. There is also a bowling green and Constantine has their own football and cricket teams. Other facilities include a doctor's surgery, highly regarded primary/junior school, Constantine parish church, The Cornish Arms public house and the Trengilly Wartha Inn just outside the village. There is also a local bus service which provides links from Helston to Falmouth.
