LIFE IN CHESTERFIELD

Chesterfield offers a great balance of town and country living, making it a popular choice for families, first-time buyers and those looking for convenient access to surrounding areas.

The town has a good selection of shops, cafés, restaurants, bars and everyday amenities, alongside a variety of parks, green spaces and leisure facilities.

The historic town centre is home to the famous Crooked Spire, a traditional market and a range of independent and high-street retailers. There are also plenty of opportunities to enjoy the outdoors, with the beautiful Derbyshire countryside close by, including the Peak District National Park.

For commuters, Chesterfield benefits from excellent transport links, with Chesterfield railway station providing regular services to Sheffield, Nottingham, Derby and London. The M1 is also easily accessible, making travel by road convenient across the region.
