PROPERTY FEATURES

- Elevated position
- On the outskirts of Bruton
- Attractive, mature garden
- Good off-street parking
- Garage

Built in 1983, Carn Brea is one of just three bungalows enjoying an elevated position on Sunny Hill, Pitcombe on the edge of Bruton.

Approached from the road via a tarmac driveway, the property offers generous parking to the front and side, together with access to the garage. Stepping inside, a welcoming central entrance hall provides access to the main living spaces and bedrooms. The sitting room, positioned at the front of the house, is a particularly comfortable and inviting space, centred around a fireplace and enhanced by dual-aspect windows that fill the room with natural light while offering views over the front garden and along the side of the property.

To the rear, the open-plan kitchen and dining room forms the heart of the home — a sociable and practical space with a breakfast bar, fitted units and integrated appliances. Sliding doors open directly onto the patio, creating an easy connection between inside and out and making the space ideal for everyday living as well as entertaining. A further door leads into the conservatory, a peaceful spot in which to relax and enjoy lovely views across the garden throughout the seasons as well, there is direct access to the garden.

The property provides three bedrooms, all served by a family bathroom. The principal bedroom is situated at the front of the house, while the second bedroom and a third single bedroom overlook the rear garden, offering quiet and private accommodation.

Gardens and Grounds

The gardens at Carn Brea are a particular highlight and clearly reflect the care and enthusiasm of the current owners. The front garden is mainly laid to lawn, creating an attractive setting on approach, while the rear garden has been thoughtfully designed to provide structure, colour and interest throughout the year. Well-tended flower beds and established planting create a delightful and peaceful outdoor space to enjoy in every season.

To the side of the property is a garage which also incorporates a useful workshop area, ideal for hobbies, storage or practical projects.

Situation

Bruton has an array of excellent restaurants along its High Street, including 'At the Chapel', 'The Old Pharmacy', 'Briar', and 'The Blue Ball'. On the town's outskirts, the renowned Hauser & Wirth Gallery hosts 'The Roth Bar' and the newly opened 'Da Costa', an Italian restaurant. For fine dining, the Michelin-starred 'Osip' is a short drive away. Bruton offers a range of amenities, including a doctor's surgery, pharmacy, vet, post office, mini supermarkets, a fuel station, and independent shops.

It's just a 10-minute drive to Castle Cary, which features a mainline railway station, the Creamery restaurant, and The Newt nearby. Castle Cary itself is a charming market town with independent businesses, boutiques, and galleries. Every Tuesday, the local market showcases fresh, locally sourced produce such as organic vegetables, artisan bread, cheeses, meats, and fish. The town also offers a nursery, primary and secondary schools, a health centre, dental practice, library, bank, post office, butcher, newsagent, chemist, pubs, restaurants, and tea shops.

Large supermarkets are located in Wincanton and Shepton Mallet which are both a short drive away. Gillingham (approx 20 mins away) has a Waitrose as does Sherborne (30 mins away). For further shopping and recreational activities, Bath, Bristol, Wells and Yeovil are all within about an hour's drive. The A303 (6 miles) provides a direct route to London via the M3 and there is a mainline rail service from Bruton/Castle Cary to London Paddington (approx. 2 hours) and also the new train to Waterloo (Bruton) . Airports in Bristol and Exeter offer connections within the UK, Europe and beyond.
