This charming two-bedroom end-of-terrace freehold home presents a rare opportunity to secure a property with exceptional character, a substantial south-facing garden and outstanding scope for future extension and enhancement.

From the moment you step inside, the home's warmth is evident, highlighted by original floorboards running through the living spaces. The ground floor features a bright reception room leading through to a well-maintained kitchen and bathroom, while the first floor hosts two generous double bedrooms, each offering a comfortable and airy retreat.

The defining feature of this property is undoubtedly its impressive outdoor space. The expansive south-facing rear garden is a sun-drenched haven, ideal for entertaining, gardening or simply relaxing outdoors. Thanks to its end-of-terrace position, the property offers exceptional scope for side and rear extensions (subject to the usual planning permissions), while still retaining substantial garden space and off-street parking potential – creating an exciting opportunity for buyers looking to create a long-term family home.

Situated within a friendly and well-established neighbourhood, the property is perfectly placed to enjoy the best of E17. Lloyd Park, home to the William Morris Gallery and popular Saturday market, is just a short stroll away, while the Walthamstow Wetlands and reservoirs provide excellent walking and cycling routes nearby.

Blackhorse Road station is approximately one mile away and the area is well served by excellent bus links, providing easy access into Central London. Residents can also enjoy the increasingly popular Blackhorse Beer Mile, the independent cafés and shops of Walthamstow Village and the famous local market.
