Set on the edge of a popular modern development, this attractive five-bedroom family home offers flexible accommodation across three floors, with an open outlook, nearby countryside walks and a more semi-rural feel than many modern development settings. The property is well placed for access to Melton Mowbray town centre, local amenities, schools and transport links, while also benefiting from a position that gives a greater sense of space and connection to the surrounding green areas.

The accommodation is arranged to support modern family living, with generous and flexible space suitable for family life, home working, visiting guests or additional living space. The layout includes a modern kitchen/dining area, reception space, five bedrooms, multiple bathrooms and versatile upper-floor accommodation. Externally, the property benefits from an improved and well-presented garden, providing an attractive outdoor space for relaxing, entertaining and family use. The wider setting, nearby walks and open aspect help give the home a strong lifestyle appeal for buyers seeking modern living with access to green space.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION An exceptional five bedroom, five bathroom detached family home, set over three floors and occupying a prime edge-of-development position on the highly regarded Kings Meadow Barratt development. Enjoying a private, non-overlooked outlook with direct access to parkland and countryside walks. Finished to an exacting standard with circa £50,000 of upgrades. Featuring a landscaped rear garden with Indian sandstone patio, generous four car driveway and garage. The accommodation on offer comprises; entrance hall, cloakroom, snug, lounge, kitchen diner and utility room to the ground floor.
