Catfield

NORFOLK'S TRANQUIL
GEM

The lovely village of Catfield is located in the heart of the Norfolk Broads, offers a serene countryside escape.

Known for its friendly community and traditional flint cottages, the village has much to offer. All Saints Church stands proudly in the centre, thought to date back to the 14th century. The Crown Inn is a favourite with the locals, as well as nearby farm shops offering fresh produce and small, independent shops.

For those who enjoy nature walks, the surrounding countryside is ideal for this, with walks along Weaver's Way or through the nearby Catfield Fen, a nature reserve known for its wildlife.

Catfield's central location in Norfolk makes it an ideal base for exploring the wider region. The Norfolk Broads is just a short drive away, offering a network of rivers and lakes perfect for boating, birdwatching, and exploring charming waterside villages like Wroxham and Horning.

Norwich City is just under forty minutes away and offers a stunning cathedral, medieval streets, museums, and a vibrant arts and culture scene. Forty minutes the opposite direction is the beautiful coastal town of Cromer, with lush sandy beaches and famous for its pier and seafood.

Travelling to these different towns is made easy with local bus services and a train station in Hoveton and Wroxham.

Whether you're seeking a peaceful retreat or hoping to explore Norfolk's rich history and vibrant culture, Catfield and its surrounding areas offer a delightful blend of countryside charm and diverse attractions.
