A spacious ground floor maisonette, with direct access to a larger than average, private garden and allocated parking space to the front. Conveniently situated within walking distance to local buses and Purley train station, along with excellent shops and amenities, the location couldn't get much better. Set back off the road, this two bedroom maisonette has a true feeling of privacy and offers an abundance of natural light that flows through the convenient layout across the ground floor. Whilst the property benefits from a central location, it's a great forever home for a small family, retired couple or first time buyers, with great schools in close proximity too. Ready to move into, with two double bedrooms, a separate kitchen, lounge with space for dining and plenty of storage, you couldn't ask for much more.

- Chain-free, well-presented ground floor maisonette
- Allocated parking space
- Lovingly updated throughout with shutters to front reception room
- Centrally located, discreetly set away from the road

- Extensive private rear garden, accessed directly
- Great size kitchen and separate lounge with space for dining
- Local transport links and amenities within walking distance
