Perfectly placed in the heart of Grays town centre, you'll have shops, cafés, restaurants and everyday essentials quite literally on your doorstep, while Grays Railway Station is just 0.2 miles away—meaning your commute could be shorter than deciding what to watch on Netflix.

Inside, the apartment offers bright and well-balanced accommodation, beginning with a welcoming entrance hallway leading to a spacious lounge/dining room with a Juliette balcony, allowing natural light to flood the space. There's a contemporary fitted kitchen, a modern bathroom and a generously sized double bedroom, all presented in excellent order and ready for its next owner to move straight in.

The lifestyle perks continue with a secure intercom entry system, lift access to all floors and the added luxury of secure underground gated parking—because finding a parking space should never be the most exciting part of your day.
