Barley Lands, Aldeburgh

A spacious and characterful four-bedroom family home with double garage, solar panels, EV charging point and beautifully landscaped rear garden within walking distance from the High Street and sea front of Aldeburgh, an extremely popular seaside town. Renowned for its connections with the composer Benjamin Britten, its sailing on the Rivers Alde and Ore and its heathland golf course. The High Street features an eclectic range of independent shops and brand name boutiques, restaurants and galleries, along with an independent cinema. The town is close to open countryside and nature reserves which are connected through a vast network of public footpaths. Situated within the Suffolk Heritage Coast, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, Aldeburgh is approximately two hours drive from London and the nearest train station is seven miles away at Saxmundham which, with a change at Ipswich, connects to London Liverpool Street.

Overview

1 Barley Lands is a particularly appealing Aldeburgh home, having formed part of the original Church Farm development in 1994. The property combines character and charm with generous, well-proportioned accommodation, making it an ideal family home.

Outside

The property has an attractive frontage, with brick steps leading to the front door. To the side is a double garage, with a driveway providing ample off-road parking. The property benefits from solar panels and an EV charging point.

To the rear, the beautifully maintained garden provides an attractive and private outdoor space, with established planting and a charming brick boundary wall.

Entrance Hallway

A light and welcoming entrance hall with staircase rising to the first-floor landing. Doors lead to the living room, dining room, kitchen and cloakroom.

Kitchen

The modern kitchen is fitted with a range of base and eye-level units, together with integrated appliances. There is ample space for a dining table, as well as useful built-in storage.

Utility Room

The utility room provides space for white goods and houses the sink and gas boiler. A rear door provides direct access to the garden.

Dining Room

A versatile second reception room, currently used as a dining room, with two windows providing plenty of natural light.

Living Room

A spacious and characterful principal reception room centred around an attractive feature fireplace with log burner. The room provides a warm and inviting space for relaxing and entertaining.

Conservatory

A generous conservatory with extensive windows overlooking the garden. Underfloor heating ensures the room can be enjoyed throughout the year, while patio doors open directly onto the rear garden.

First Floor Landing

The first-floor landing provides access to all four bedrooms and the family bathroom. There is also a loft hatch and useful airing cupboard.

Bedroom One

A generous double bedroom with two built-in wardrobes and a window overlooking the front of the property. The room benefits from a recently refurbished en-suite shower room.

En Suite

Recently renewed and finished in a contemporary style, the en-suite comprises a shower, wash basin, WC, heated towel rail and useful storage.

Bedroom Two

A well-proportioned double bedroom with a window overlooking the rear garden.

Bedroom Three

A further double bedroom with built-in wardrobe.

Bedroom Four

A bedroom with built-in wardrobe and useful eaves storage cupboards.

Family Bathroom

The family bathroom is fitted with a bath, wash basin, WC and heated towel rails, with a frosted window providing natural light.
