Each section of this space enjoys direct access to the garden via patio doors, flooding the room with light and framing the glorious countryside backdrop. Upstairs, the first floor offers three substantial double bedrooms. The principal suite features a private balcony with uninterrupted views across open fields, along with a sleek en-suite shower room. The second bedroom also enjoys its own en-suite with both a shower and free-standing roll-top bath, as well as a dedicated dressing area. The third bedroom is another generous double and completes the accommodation.
