

Brides Brae Cottage Ancroft

Berwick-upon-Tweed, Northumberland, TD15 2TE

Offers In The Region Of £275,000

Built around 1790, Brides Brae Cottage is a spacious and well proportioned three bedroom semi-detached cottage, offering comfortable living accommodation together with excellent outside space and useful ancillary facilities. Set within the village of Ancroft, the property enjoys open views of fields and countryside.

The accommodation has a flexible layout, which comprises of an entrance hall with a cloakroom, large lounge that provides a generous and comfortable principal reception room, with plenty of space for a variety of furniture arrangements and making an ideal area for both relaxing and entertaining. The kitchen/dining area provides a practical and sociable space for everyday life, with ample room for a dining table and chairs and a range of pine kitchen units with appliances. The current owner has a further sitting room, however, this would make a third bedroom if required. There are two double bedrooms, the main bedroom has an en-suite shower room and the other bedroom is served by a separate shower room. The cottage has oil central heating and partial double and secondary glazing.

One of the property's particularly useful features is the large garage/workshop, this provides substantial additional space and could be ideal for those requiring secure storage, a workshop, space for vehicles, equipment or a range of hobbies and interests. To the rear, there is a good-sized enclosed garden, offering a private and secure outdoor area. The garden has been landscaped with ease of maintenance in mind, making it a practical space that can be enjoyed without the extensive upkeep associated with larger traditional gardens. The summerhouse overlooks the garden and there are double gates giving access to the driveway offering ample parking.

The nearest town to Ancroft is Berwick-upon-Tweed, approximately five miles away, where there is excellent shopping facilities and a railway station on the East Coast line.

Viewing is recommended.
