Four double bedrooms and versatile accommodation over multiple floors

Successfully operated as a family home and profitable Airbnb investment

Spacious entertaining areas including dining area, breakfast area and snug

Enclosed courtyard garden with raised decked seating area and potential for off-road parking (STPP)

Several bedrooms benefit from their own facilities, while a substantial family bathroom, complete with both a bath and separate shower, serves the remaining rooms. The layout is ideally suited to modern lifestyles, offering both privacy and comfort for residents and visitors alike. A particularly appealing feature is the elegant first-floor sitting room, providing additional reception space and a wonderful vantage point from which to appreciate the property's character and coastal setting.

Externally, the enclosed rear courtyard garden has been designed for easy maintenance and enjoyment, featuring a raised decked area ideal for outdoor dining, entertaining or simply relaxing during the warmer months. To the front, there is potential to create private off-road parking, subject to the necessary permissions, in keeping with neighbouring properties.

Combining Victorian elegance, flexible accommodation and a prime coastal location, this impressive home presents a rare opportunity for purchasers seeking a substantial family residence, a lifestyle change by the sea, or an attractive
