London Property Professionals

Manor Road, W13

£899,000

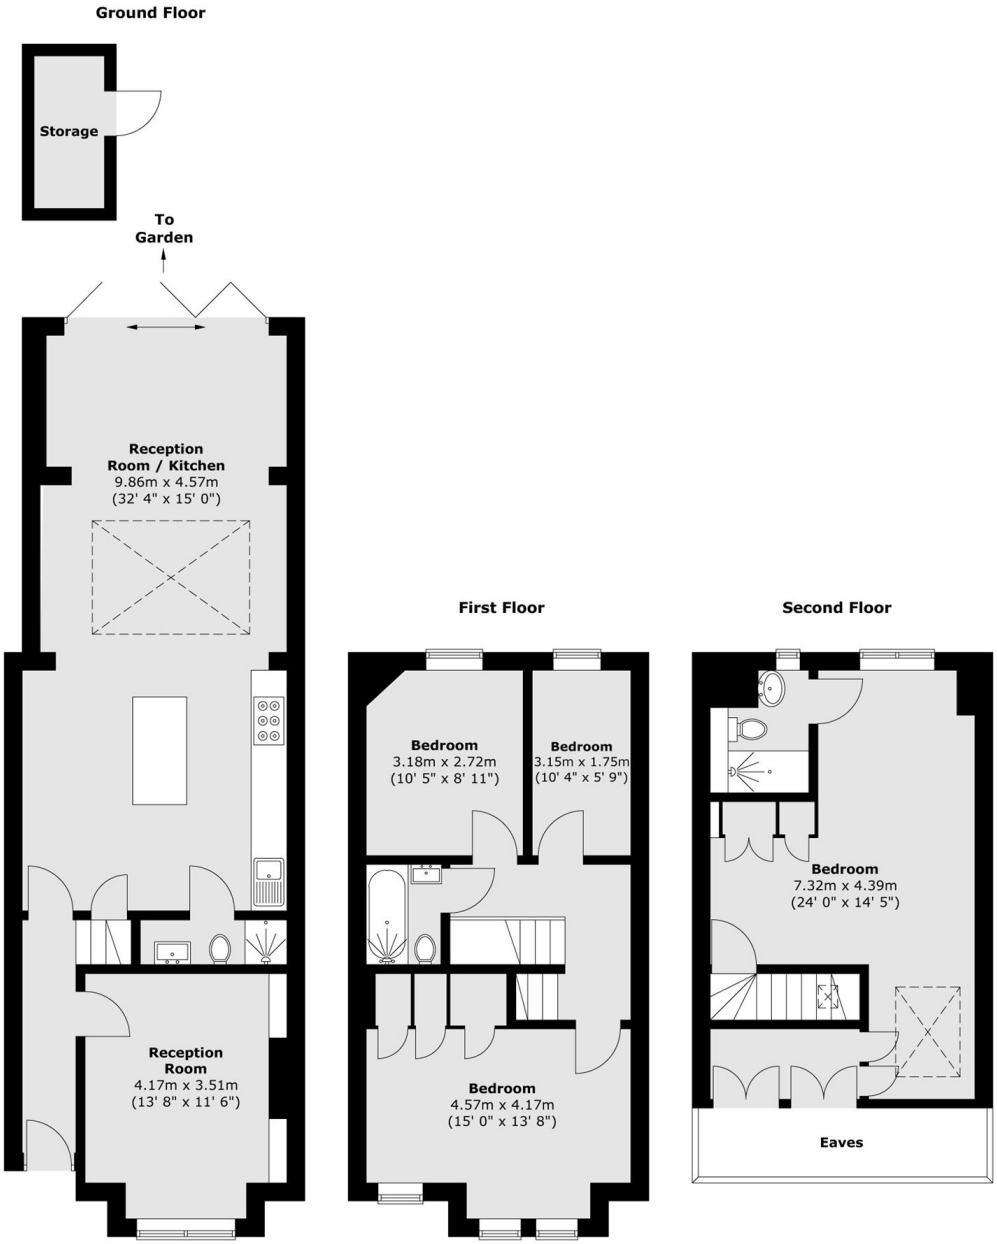

This attractive four bedroom, three bathroom Victorian mid-terrace home has been thoughtfully extended on the ground floor and further enhanced by a loft conversion, creating generous and versatile accommodation arranged over three floors. Retaining the charm and character of its Victorian origins while offering modern family living. No onward chain.

Ideally positioned directly opposite West Ealing Elizabeth Line station, the property offers excellent transport connections into central London and beyond. A range of local schools, shops and everyday amenities can be found just a short stroll away at the bottom of the avenue, making this a particularly convenient location for families and commuters alike.
