Believed to be one of the oldest properties in the village, this former mill cottage—dating back to before 1893, offers charm, character, and slice of history. Set on the western edge of this sought-after village, the property enjoys open views across adjoining fields.

Inside, the home offers surprisingly spacious and flexible accommodation, including two reception rooms, a dining kitchen, conservatory, bathroom, separate WC, and three well-proportioned bedrooms. Period details such as exposed timber beams and a stunning cast-iron fireplace add to the cottage's distinctive appeal.

Outside, the property features gardens to both the front and rear, along with a parking area beneath a carport and an additional garage.

ACCOMMODATION

The property is arranged over two floors and comprises:

GROUND FLOOR

DINING KITCHEN
