IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Set behind a handsome period façade, the building immediately conveys warmth and quiet confidence, with brickwork and sash windows giving it a timeless presence on the street. Its balanced proportions and classic detailing feel settled and established, offering a sense of character that continues inside.

The hallway creates an immediate sense of arrival, with herringbone flooring underfoot introducing texture and a strong thread of continuity that carries through the home. At the heart of it all sits the kitchen, lounge and dining room, an inviting and expansive setting designed for gathering and unwinding, where the sense of openness draws you in from the outset. Windows frame leafy views and bring an uplifting feel throughout the day, while the layout naturally encourages long breakfasts, quiet evenings and easy hosting. The herringbone flooring continues seamlessly here, reinforcing cohesion and flow, with an overall atmosphere that is warm and expressive.

The main bedroom is a restful retreat with generous proportions and sash windows that add to its easy, settled quality, complemented by soft tones that enhance the room's relaxed character. A second bedroom is equally appealing, with a well-proportioned footprint and a tall window that draws in plenty of daylight, offering a flexible and welcoming arrangement. In the bathroom, a bath with overhead shower is paired with beautifully patterned tiling, bringing a design-led finish that feels considered and distinctive. Just moments from Walthamstow Village, the surrounding streets feature charming cobbled lanes, independent favourites and a strong local identity. Berns & the Beans is well regarded for excellent coffee and brunches, while The Nag's Head draws locals for its friendly atmosphere, well-kept beers and popular beer garden. Creative energy comes from God's Own Junkyard, where iconic neon works sit alongside food trucks and craft beers, and Soho Theatre Walthamstow adds a varied programme of comedy and live performance. Nearby, Lloyd Park offers wide green lawns, cafés within the park, a weekend market and the William Morris Gallery, making it a natural hub for leisurely afternoons.

WHAT ELSE?

Walthamstow Central Station is an eight-minute walk away, providing access to the Victoria line for swift journeys into the City and West End, along with Overground services connecting across London. Walthamstow Queen's Road Station can be reached in thirteen minutes on foot, offering additional Overground links and flexibility for commuting or travelling further afield.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"We have loved every moment spent in this flat. It is incredibly quiet and an oasis of calm from the city. Being in the heart of the village with all it has to offer has been a huge benefit, we'll really miss being able to walk up the quaint church path for a pint at the Nags!"
