

7 Haywards Farm Close , Verwood, BH31 6XW

Dating back to the early 1700s, this exceptional period home is recognised as one of the oldest surviving properties in Verwood, offering a rare blend of historic character, generous accommodation and modern versatility.

Set within a quiet and desirable location, the main house provides substantial and flexible living space arranged over two floors, currently configured to offer five to six bedrooms, making it ideal for larger families, multi-generational living or those seeking space to work from home.

At the heart of the home is a welcoming lounge featuring a traditional fire box and wood-burning stove, creating a warm and atmospheric focal point. Throughout the property, original features reflect the building's heritage while being carefully balanced with practical updates for modern living.
