Summary of Features

- Substantial detached bungalow
- Flexible 4 bedroom accommodation
- Large gardens and small paddock
- Views to the front

Asking Price £550,000

A circa early 1960's detached bungalow offering substantial accommodation on one floor, set out of the main village of Burghill midway towards Moreton on Lugg. The property does back onto a quarry but enjoys an elevated position with distant views across the country lane to the west and north. Accommodation is LPG gas central heated and double glazed offering a flexible layout with potential to form an integrated annex. There is a garage, a car port and good sized gardens as well as a useful small paddock.

Situation

Set between the villages of Burghill and Moreton on Lugg in an elevated setting with views to the north and west. The property is strategically well placed for Hereford and Leominster being just half a mile from the A49. The nearest main facilities would be Hereford (4 miles) for shopping, leisure and schooling.
