Wymeswold, Loughborough, LE12 6TX

Price Guide £350,000

 GUIDE PRICE - £350,000-£375,000 **

Nestled along the highly regarded Church Street in the heart of Wymeswold, this exquisite three-bedroom country cottage offers an outstanding opportunity to acquire a characterful period home in one of Charnwood's most sought-after village settings.

Thought to date back to the 18th century, the property is a fine example of the timeless charm and architectural heritage typical of the region. Tucked discreetly within the historic core of the village, this quintessential English cottage boasts an abundance of original features, with an inviting blend of rustic elegance and practical living space. It sits just a short stroll from the village's excellent amenities, including a well-stocked local shop, a primary school, and three renowned public houses — most notably the Hammer & Pincers, a Michelin Guide favourite offering award-winning dining right on your doorstep.

The accommodation is well-balanced and full of character, comprising, in brief: a welcoming lounge with feature fireplace, a formal dining room ideal for entertaining, and a cottage-style kitchen complete with a walk-in pantry and adjoining rear hallway/boot room — perfect for
