Broadmayne village is two miles southeast of the historic county town of Dorchester. This active and friendly community is centred around its well-stocked village shop and Post Office, the well-regarded Broadmayne First School, and the Black Dog, a popular traditional thatched pub known for its local ales and family-friendly garden. The village is steeped in history, featuring the 13th-century St Martin's Church and is surrounded by an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, offering immediate access to the South Dorset Ridgeway for breathtaking walks and cycling. Beyond the village, Broadmayne serves as an ideal gateway to the Jurassic Coast, with the sands and harbour of Weymouth and the dramatic cliffs of Lulworth Cove and Durdle Door all within a short 15-to-20-minute drive. A mainline rail connection at Dorchester offers direct routes to London Waterloo.

A spacious entrance hallway immediately impresses, showcasing character and charm while providing access to the ground floor accommodation. The impressive sitting room features exposed wooden beams, an inglenook gas fireplace with exposed brick surround, and access to both the conservatory and dining room, creating an ideal space for relaxing and entertaining. The modern fitted kitchen is well equipped with a range of wall and base units complemented by attractive Maia work surfaces. Integrated appliances include a Bosch dishwasher, eye-level double oven, microwave, and four-ring gas hob, while a designated space for a fridge/freezer enhances practicality. Attractive tiled flooring compliments the space and flows seamlessly into the characterful dining room, which is further complemented by exposed brick walls and beams. In addition to the kitchen, a separate utility room provides additional storage, work surfaces, an integrated sink, and access to the rear of the property. A particular highlight of the home is the large conservatory, which takes full advantage of the stunning surrounding scenery, enjoying panoramic views across the rolling countryside beyond. Completing the ground floor is a useful study fitted with bespoke units.

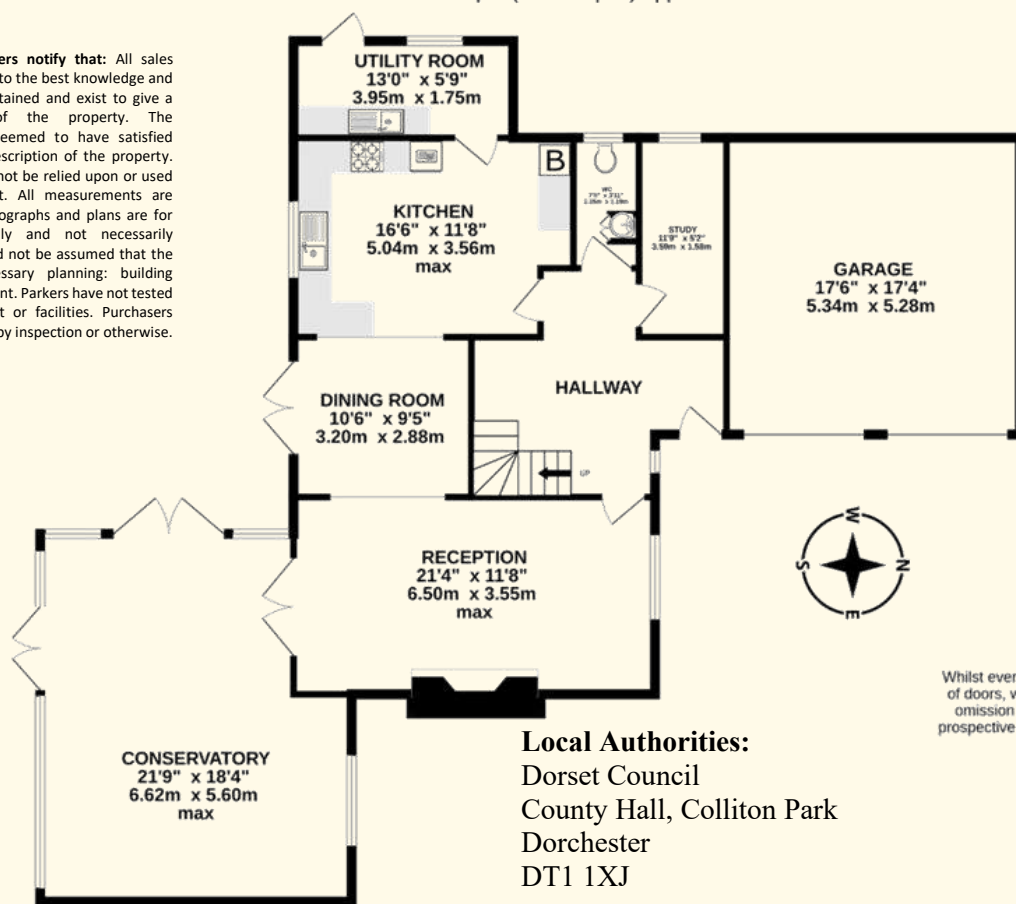

Stairs rise to the first floor, where a landing leads to four double bedrooms and the family bathroom. The impressive principal bedroom benefits from fitted wardrobes, a dual aspect, and is served by a modern en-suite comprising a walk-in shower, WC, and wash hand basin. The remaining three bedrooms are all well-proportioned, with one further bedroom benefiting from fitted wardrobes and bedroom four featuring fitted shelving. The contemporary family bathroom is fitted with a white panel enclosed bath with shower over, WC, wash hand basin, and heated towel rail.

Externally, the property continues to impress with a beautifully landscaped westerly-facing rear garden featuring a variety of mature trees, shrubs, flower beds and borders creating colour and texture. Three separate seating areas provide an ideal spot for outside furniture. The garden further benefits from side access, outside power, outside water tap, bin storage and a useful garden shed.
