welcome to

Land At Clifton Road Clifton Road, Ashbourne

A freehold piece of land located in Ashbourne, just on the outskirts of the town centre. The plot measures approximately 1 acre, subject to measured survey. There is an existing building located on the plot (we haven't been able to inspect the building) and the plot has its own access off Clifton Road. Currently, there are no services to the site. The land has a number of potential uses, subject to necessary permissions & consents, including potential development. Ashbourne is a thriving market town on the edge of the Peak District National Park. The plot has established and mature trees/shrubbery, as well as a building, and site visits are available strictly during daylight hours without prior appointment. It is essential that care is taken and appropriate footwear/clothing is worn when inspecting the site as some of the ground is uneven and areas of the site are overgrown.
