£329,950

Crieff Court, TW11

This spacious, one double bedroom purpose-built apartment is recently refurbished and incredibly well presented throughout. With a generous reception room leading to a private, south-facing balcony, modern separate kitchen and in an excellent location, this makes the ideal investment or first time buy.

Located on the first floor, you are welcomed in to the property by a large hallway leading to all rooms. The bedroom is generously proportioned with fitted wardrobes. The bathroom across the hallway has been beautifully modernised as part of the recent renovation. The kitchen is stylish and separate from the reception room, which offers the perfect entertaining space leading onto the private balcony.

The storage is superb, as is the abundant off-street parking and the apartment features a security entry phone system. This makes an ideal rental investment or first time buy.

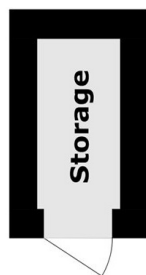

Crieff Court is within close proximity to Royal Bushy Park and Hampton Wick mainline station, offering direct services to London Waterloo. Teddington High Street, Kingston town centre and The River Thames are all close by.
