DESCRIPTION

This top floor, duplex apartment offers a modern and luxurious living environment, peppered with period features and set within a fabulous Georgian Town House.

Situated within the Georgian Quarter of Kingston Upon Hull, this amazing apartment delivers a layout designed for comfort and convenience and does this in style!

A perfect first home, a wonderful buy-to-let investment opportunity or a stylish residence for professionals working in the City Centre or commuting out of the City.

On entering the property you are immediately greeted by Georgian period features, a light and bright colour palette, an abundance of natural daylight and beautiful natural Oak flooring...a theme which continues throughout this wonderful apartment!

From the entrance hall you are led into an open-plan living room, this is a bright and airy reception area creating a versatile environment for relaxation and dining. There are period Georgian features juxtaposed with a very modern colour palette, natural Oak flooring and an architectural statement-piece spiral staircase, leading up to the principal suite. There is a large sash window allowing daylight to flood into the room and providing fantastic city-scape views, there are integrated Hi-Fi speakers within the ceiling, stunning plasterwork cornicing and ceiling rose adorn the ceiling and custom-made Venetian blinds dress the window...this fabulous room then opens up further into the spacious kitchen.

The open-plan kitchen diner is fitted with a range of ultra-modern, high-gloss wall and base units with stone-effect work surfaces atop. Warm pastel-coloured wall tiling forms an inviting splashback and adds a splash of colour. There is an array of integrated appliances including a larger fridge-freezer, a fan-assisted electric oven, a halogen four-ring hob with extraction hood over, washing machine and a dishwasher. The sash window provides views across the City Centre and is finished with custom-made venetian blinds.

From the kitchen is a boiler cupboard which could be racked-out to form a convenient laundry airing room.

To the rear of the main floor and back through the entrance hall you will find Bedroom No. 2, this is a generous double bedrooms also benefitting from excellent proportions and period features. There are high ceilings, a period sash window with Georgian window boxing floods the room with natural daylight and there is a well-appointed ensuite bathroom.

The ensuite bathroom offers space and style with a three-piece suite comprises of a close-coupled W.C, a large pedestal wash basin and a large walk-in shower cubicle with a MIRA thermostatic shower. The suite is finished in brilliant white
