For sale with No Onward Chain. A truly unique opportunity awaits with this historic 3-bedroom detached house on Plains Road, Little Totham, believed to date back to 1812. This exceptional property, enjoyed by its current owners for over 20 years, offers a rare blend of period charm and extensive grounds, all within a sought after location. The main dwelling features an inviting open plan Kitchen/Dining/Family Area, a convenient Ground Floor Cloakroom, a practical Utility/Boot Room, and a main Bathroom. With two reception rooms, there is ample space for family living and entertaining.

Set within approximately 2.5 acres, the property boasts stunning farmland views, providing a tranquil and picturesque setting. The extensive grounds comprise a beautifully maintained Formal Garden, a smaller paddock of approximately 1/5 acre, and a substantial rear paddock extending to around 1.8 acres. This generous outdoor space offers immense potential for various uses, from equestrian pursuits to further landscaping. The property also benefits from significant scope to extend the main residence, subject to planning permission.

Complementing the main house are a range of versatile outbuildings, including a Garage, Workshop, and two storage units, formerly stabling. A standout feature is the extensive Games Room, complete with an additional Bathroom, offering excellent potential for conversion into an independent annexe, subject to planning permission. A Summer House further enhances the outdoor living experience. This well appointed home combines traditional values with modern living, offering a lifestyle opportunity not to be missed. Viewing is essential to fully appreciate the character, space, and potential this remarkable property offers. EPC: F, Council Tax: E
