GUIDE £190,000 LEASEHOLD

Situated within close proximity of the town centre, this deceptively spacious Victorian one-bedroom ground floor maisonette benefits from a private south-facing garden.

The property is well presented throughout and provides an entrance porch leading into the hallway, a dual-aspect kitchen allowing for excellent natural light, a modern shower room, and a generous lounge/dining room with useful storage. The principal bedroom enjoys an attractive bay window, enhancing both space and character.

To the rear, there is a delightful, low-maintenance south-facing garden comprising patio and gravel areas, ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining.

Gated rear access leads conveniently back to the front of the property.

Further benefits include gas central heating (Worcester combi boiler) and uPVC double glazing throughout.

Lease length remaining is 94 years - Ground rent, maintenance and building insurance is £374.68 annually.

Situated within 300 metres to the centre of the Thameside town of Wallingford. Offering a superb Waitrose store, and a variety of shops, restaurants, and pubs together with a monthly Farmer's market, a cinema and theatre. Wallingford secondary School is just 600 metres away and St Johns Primary is just 250 metres.

Communications are excellent, with access to the M4 junction 12 at Theale and the A34 to Newbury and Oxford.
