This beautifully refurbished three-bedroom period home offers stylish, contemporary interiors arranged across three floors, combining generous living space with an excellent standard of finish throughout.

The ground floor is centred around an impressive open-plan kitchen, dining and reception space, creating a wonderfully sociable setting for everyday living and entertaining. The sleek modern kitchen features a striking two-tone design with extensive worktop and storage space, while doors to the rear provide direct access to the garden. A convenient guest WC completes this level.

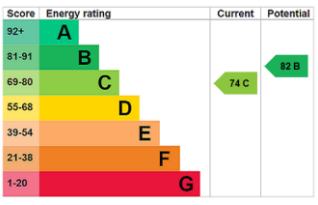

The first floor offers two well-proportioned double bedrooms, both benefiting from built-in storage, alongside a beautifully appointed family bathroom finished with elegant marble-effect tiling and contemporary fittings.

Occupying the top floor, the generous principal bedroom suite provides a more private retreat, complete with fitted storage and its own stylish en-suite bathroom. Skylights bring additional natural light into the upper level.

Presented in excellent condition, the house combines clean modern finishes with the character of its period exterior, while features including wood flooring, excellent built-in storage and a private rear garden further enhance the appeal.

With three double bedrooms, two bathrooms, a guest WC and superb open-plan living space, this is a thoughtfully designed home ideally suited to modern family life.
