Scotlandwell is a picturesque village within Kinross-shire. It lies to the east of Loch Leven, approximately 4 miles east of Kinross and 4 miles west of Glenrothes. Scotlandwell is host to Kinross-shire's historic site, The Well and Wash House. Spring water from the well, from which the village gets its name, was thought to cure many diseases and was famously visited by King Robert the Bruce. Within the village you will find the Well Country Inn and just a short distance away in Kinnesswood you will find a village shop and a well-respected primary school. Secondary education can be found in Kinross with Dollar Academy also within easy reach (bus services run to both schools). A wider range of amenities such as supermarkets, banking and leisure facilities are available in Kinross and Glenrothes. As well as its countryside walks and leisure facilities the area is renowned for its excellent golf courses, fishing on Loch Leven and the nearby RSPB Nature Reserve. The M90 gives quick access to both Perth and Edinburgh. There is a Park and Ride service at Kinross with regular express coach services to Edinburgh and Perth. There is a train station at Inverkeithing with services into Edinburgh Park, Haymarket and Waverley, as well as a further Park and Ride service. Edinburgh Airport, situated on the western periphery of Edinburgh, has a wide range of domestic and international flights. The property is situated at the entrance to Portmoak Moss once used by local people as a source of peat for the fire, 'The Moss' has been managed as a community woodland in partnership with the Woodland Trust since 1996. Trails provide an opportunity to see a rich variety of wildlife including red squirrels, roe deer, greater spotted woodpeckers, long-tailed tits, damsel flies, dragon flies and butterflies.
