GUIDE PRICE £450,000

O'Riordan Bond is delighted to offer for sale this Grade II Listed early Victorian double fronted town house backing onto St. Giles Church. Originally built in 1847 for the church, this highly impressive property has been further extended over the years and now offers substantial accommodation over three floors.

Steeped in history, there are many character features including some original architraving, original cast iron and hand-made crafted timber fireplaces and a feature stained glass window visible from a beautiful winding semi-elliptical staircase rising. The substantial accommodation comprises entrance porch, central entrance hall, sitting room, a stunning dining room with dual aspect windows and beautiful original fireplace, kitchen/breakfast room, downstairs cloakroom/WC, triple compartment cellar, three double bedrooms plus a bathroom and separate shower room on the first floor and two further bedrooms on the second floor. There is a small front garden with retaining wall and a private westerly facing walled courtyard garden to the rear. The property also benefits from a single garage.

AGENTS NOTE - Only the front elevation is Grade II Listed.
