THE LOCATION

The property is accessed down a private road shared with other high-end homes, located within the grounds of the prestigious Meudon Hotel. After entering the hotel's main access, a private lane of approximately 200 metres leads to the property, which is the final one at the end. This secluded position ensures privacy while being conveniently located just outside Falmouth, close to Maenporth and the Helford River. The setting is tree-lined and overlooks a large field leading down towards Falmouth Bay.

THE PROPERTY

A double fronted, detached house understood to have been built in the late 1960s of cavity block construction under a multi-pitched roof with modernised uPVC guttering. The property is in need of total renovation and currently features dated elements, including a lean-to garage-style building and a conservatory. It offers a unique opportunity to be transformed into a fabulous landmark home, capitalising on its exceptional position and views.
