Situated less than a ten-minute walk away from Bangor train station, 87 Caernarfon Road is a spacious four-bedroom house share ideal for any student wanting to be close to all Bangor has to offer. Each bedroom is carpeted and comes furnished with a bed and varying storage furniture. The living room is well lit and makes a great communal area to relax and socialise in, with two comfy sofas around a coffee table. Skylights and a window that looks onto the rear of the property ensure that the kitchen has a bright and warm atmosphere, while a multitude of cupboards and countertops provide more than enough storage for residents. A washing machine, oven and fridge freezer also feature in this room. The bathroom in the property is fitted with a shower, toilet and sink. Caernarfon Road is host to a large retail park containing many chain shops, restaurants and supermarkets. Bangor's main high street can also be reached with a ten-minute walk, in addition to many University buildings.
