Location

Hunter Street is ideally located within walking distance of Rugby town centre and Rugby railway station. Rugby town has a good selection of high street and independent shops, as well as restaurants, bars, coffee shops and leisure facilities. State funded and independent schooling is available within the town or a short bus journey away, with Lawrence Sheriff and Rugby School both being within walking distance. The property is well positioned for the commuter with easy access to road and rail networks, including M1, M6, M45 and A45. Rugby railway station offers a frequent high speed train service to London Euston in just under 50 minutes, as well as regular services to Coventry, Birmingham, and the north.

Ground Floor

The property opens into an open plan kitchen/diner fitted with a modern range of base and eye level units complete with integrated dishwasher, electric oven, induction hob with extractor hood, with space for a washing machine. An opening leads through to a sitting room which has dual aspect windows to the front and rear of the property. There is wood effect flooring throughout the ground floor. The property is freehold with no service charges or ground rent.

First Floor

To the first floor there are two well proportioned bedrooms both with Velux skylights, with bedroom two benefitting from a built-in wardrobe. The shower room is well appointed comprising of a white suite with shower enclosure, a sink with vanity unit and WC.

Outside

The property benefits from a westerly facing courtyard garden and to the front a gravel driveway provides parking for two vehicles with a central paved pathway leading to the front entrance door. To the side of the property there is access to the rear. The property can be found tucked away on a privately maintained road situated off Hunter Street.
