For sale is this three-bedroom end of terrace house in the heart of Thorne, Doncaster, offering well-presented accommodation ideal for first time buyers or investors.

Neutrally decorated throughout, the light and airy living room features modern flooring, creating a comfortable everyday space. To the rear, a generous kitchen/diner runs the width of the house, fitted with contemporary units, integrated oven and hob, and ample worktop and dining space - perfect for family meals and entertaining.

Upstairs are three double bedrooms and a modern bathroom along with an additional W.C, adding practicality for busy households. The EPC rating of C and Council Tax Band A contribute to manageable running costs.

Outside, the enclosed courtyard garden provides a low-maintenance space for seating, barbecues or storage, with an outbuilding offering useful additional space for bikes or tools.

The property is superbly placed for Thorne's amenities, with the town centre shops, supermarkets, cafes and pubs all within easy reach. Families benefit from a choice of local primary and secondary schools in the area. Thorne Park and the canal-side walks offer pleasant green space and leisure opportunities nearby.

Transport links are excellent: Thorne North and Thorne South railway stations provide services to Doncaster, Sheffield, Hull and Scunthorpe, with journeys to Doncaster typically around 15-20 minutes. Road connections via the M18 and M180 make commuting across the region straightforward.
