

Canterbury Road, Kennington, Ashford, TN25 4DY

Asking price: Asking Price £400,000

A Rarely Available Two-Bedroom Detached Bungalow with garage, generous gardens & Exciting Potential - A rare opportunity to acquire a three-bedroom detached bungalow, occupying a generous plot in this popular and established part of Kennington.

Properties of this nature rarely become available along this stretch of Canterbury Road, making this an exciting opportunity for those seeking the increasingly desirable benefits of single-storey living, a detached home and genuine scope to create something special.

Set behind a private driveway, the property immediately benefits from attractive bay-fronted accommodation, adding character to the front elevation. The driveway provides useful off-road parking and garage too, which boasts additional access and supply of water. Offering excellent storage and practical space for those looking for somewhere to house a vehicle, workshop or additional belongings.

Internally, the property currently offers two/three bedrooms, together with the flexible accommodation you would expect from a bungalow of this style. If you desire more reception room than bedrooms, here you'll find the space you need to make it your own. The kitchen is compact, yet functional, but could lend itself well to a extension STTP. There is a large shower room, that services all bedrooms which leads through to the dining area. While the property would benefit from a degree of modernisation, this presents an exciting opportunity for the incoming purchaser to update and improve the accommodation to their own tastes and requirements.

For those looking for a property with potential, this home is particularly interesting. The accommodation could provide a fantastic foundation for a comprehensive refurbishment, while the generous plot offers further possibilities. To the rear is an impressive, level garden, providing an excellent amount of outside space and a superb blank canvas for gardening enthusiasts, families or those simply wanting a larger garden.

The size and configuration of the plot could also lend itself to potential extensions or alterations, either to the existing footprint or potentially upwards, subject to the necessary planning permissions and building regulations. This gives the property a degree of flexibility that is becoming increasingly difficult to find, particularly with detached bungalows.

A SUPERB GARDEN & OUTSIDE SPACE: One of the property's standout features is undoubtedly the large, level rear garden. Predominantly laid to lawn, the garden offers a wonderful amount of usable outside space and is considerably larger than many modern bungalow gardens. The level nature of the garden makes it particularly versatile, with ample room for seating areas, entertaining, planting and children's play space, while also providing the potential purchaser with an exciting opportunity to consider how the garden and existing accommodation could evolve over time. The combination of the substantial garden, detached garage, front driveway and detached bungalow accommodation makes this a particularly interesting proposition.
