Mirabel Road, SW6

Recently refurbished throughout by the current owner with exceptional attention to detail, this beautifully presented property is accessed via its own private entrance on the raised ground floor, creating an immediate sense of privacy and space.

Upon entering, the spacious reception room features high ceilings, a front-facing bay window, original cornicing and a striking bio-ethanol fireplace. Bespoke cabinetry provides extensive storage and incorporates a cleverly concealed home office area, while cast-iron radiators are found throughout the property.

The hallway is finished with luxury engineered oak flooring and leads to a generous double bedroom. Symmetrical fitted cupboards and storage are positioned either side of the bed, complemented by extensive built-in wardrobes with integrated drawers and hanging rails.

The beautifully appointed four-piece bathroom is finished with luxurious marble-effect tiling and features both a rainfall shower and a freestanding slipper bath.

To the rear, the impressive kitchen combines style and functionality, with a breakfast bar, central island and extensive bespoke cabinetry, including a cleverly concealed pantry. Aluminium-framed doors open directly onto a private balcony, which in turn leads down to a secluded, decked patio garden.
