£3,000 Per Month

“

Four bedrooms are only part of the story here – it is the beautifully considered top-floor suite, generous living space and family garden that make this a home with room for everyone.

There is a lot to like about this four-bedroom home in Redstone Park, but it is the way the space has been adapted for family life that really sets it apart. Arranged across three floors and extending to approximately 1,608 sq ft excluding the garage, there is room here for a family to properly spread out.

The ground floor retains a traditional and practical arrangement. A generous living room occupies the front of the house, while the separate dining room sits at the rear with French doors opening straight onto the garden. Alongside is a fitted kitchen, with a downstairs WC completing the floor.

Upstairs, the first floor provides three bedrooms, including two particularly generous doubles, together with the main family bathroom. It means younger children can comfortably remain together on one level while the top floor becomes a completely separate space for parents.

The loft conversion has been impeccably done, rather than feeling like an additional room simply squeezed into the roof. The floorplan shows an impressive bedroom alongside a dedicated dressing room with extensive fitted wardrobe space.

There is also a separate bathroom on this floor, effectively turning the entire loft into a private principal suite. Beyond the dressing room sits a substantial area of eaves storage spanning almost the full width of the house – an incredibly useful feature for suitcases, seasonal belongings and everything else a growing family accumulates.

Outside, the rear garden continues the family-friendly feel. French doors connect the dining room to a paved terrace, with lawn and established planting beyond providing plenty of space for children to play and adults to entertain.

This is ultimately a house that has evolved particularly well. Rather than sacrificing bedrooms to create more space, the loft conversion has given the home a genuine fourth bedroom and a superb parents' retreat, leaving the original first floor free to work brilliantly for children, guests or WFH.
