PARTICULARS OF SALE

Built in the 1960s, Sedgemoor is an individual detached bungalow set in a raised position above the passing village road. The property has 2 double bedrooms and 2 reception rooms and is well maintained but ripe for upgrading and modernisation.

From the steps at the front, there is a glazed porch on the side of the building with an internal door opening into ...

The lounge has a gas fire with a pine surround and windows to the front and side giving views over the surrounding countryside. A door opens to the inner hallway and an open archway leads through to...

The dining room has a window to the front and also houses the gas central heating boiler. An archway opens through to

The kitchen has a window and a half-glazed door to the side and is fitted with a simple suite of white kitchen cabinets under laminate units.

The master bedroom is a good-sized double bedroom with built-in wardrobes and a window facing onto the rear garden.

The second bedroom is a slightly smaller double with a window facing onto the rear garden.

The Shower room is part tiled with a simple white suite including a glazed shower cubicle, low flush WC and pedestal wash hand basin.

A hatch over the inner hallway leads up to a large loft area with a window to the front.

Outside

To the front, the property is terraced above the level of the pavement with a narrow garden sitting behind a stone wall.

A shared driveway down the side of the house leads up to the detached, brick, single garage with light and power connected. Adjoining the rear wall of this is a timber garden store.

The rear garden has been landscaped and part paved for ease of maintenance. There is a return path down the side of the house to the entrance porch.
